Profile:

First Option, aka Option One, is going through a transformation. They have recently changed owners and are now changing their servicing name to American Home Mortgage Servicing Inc.

For generations, American Home Mortgage Servicing has been helping homeowners with all their mortgage needs. We have successfully navigated through extreme economic upswings and downswings. As an industry leader we have proactively created options that can address our customers' every need. Today, American Home Mortgage Servicing, Inc. is considered a leader amongst our peers and often imitated, but never equaled.

As of 2008 we are a well capitalized company with a multi-billion dollar portfolio, making us one the largest independently-owned and operated mortgage servicing companies in the United States, poised to leverage international opportunities. Our customers can feel confident that regardless of the economic uncertainties we may face, we will face them together. By providing exceptional service and innovative solutions we can continue to be an advocate for homeownership and a champion for our homeowners.
